PREFACE

Will I ever collect my just dues? What are my just dues? Who knows, it is a trail towards one's destiny and I have learnt to follow the leads through the maze of Brahma-Nature with its complexities.

So here I go on another bright morning on the 4th of April 2024. The first task is to catch up with my correspondence as follows on Linkedin:

We're deleting your Make a lasting power of attorney account on 3 May 2024

This email is about the online account where you create lasting powers of attorney (LPAs) – <https://www.gov.uk/power-of-attorney/make-lasting-power>.

We close these accounts if no one has logged into them for 9 months. We're planning to delete your account on 3 May 2024. This is to protect your privacy: we do not hold your data for longer than we need to.

What will not be affected

Any LPAs you've printed and posted to OPG for registration – we'll process these as normal

Any registered LPAs – you can continue to use any registered LPAs as normal

Any Use a lasting power of attorney account you may have created – you'll still be able to sign in to that account

What we'll delete

All information you've entered into the Make a lasting power of attorney online service

All complete or incomplete LPA application forms on the service

If you want to keep your account

You may want to keep your account if you have any draft or unregistered LPAs online, or if you think you'll want to look at your LPA documents online in the future.

To keep your account, sign in at <https://www.lastingpowerofattorney.service.gov.uk/login>
If you're sure you want your account deleted

There's nothing else you need to do. We'll automatically delete your account on 3 May 2024.

Comments:

I am too old for this game so will not even open the email from GOV.UK to read it and will not go into LinkedIn either until the Court authorities sends me a letter or an email, of Kent Police sends me a letter or an email or Britton House sends me a letter or an email or even a Phone Call. In fact I will answer all calls to my Mobile Phone from this point onwards to give the dogs a direct whacking over the phone.

This is why the 187th book in the series ‘The Allurement of Reality’ has to be inserted into The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop today; 187 being the number ‘7’ so that it seals the belief that God had engineered my life.. Hence, my last book is titled ‘Collecting the dough’, dough being an informal word for money.

Liberal Democrats

Dear Shantanu,

We hope you've enjoyed finding out more about being a Member of the Liberal Democrats over the last couple of days.

This is the last in our welcome series - we'll soon be letting you get on with your Membership! But before we leave you to it, we've got a couple of other quick things to share with you about your Membership!

👉 We're here to help

Have a question for us or need some help with your membership?

You can contact us via the following methods and we will get back to you, or pass your enquiry to the relevant team.

Contact us online →

Email us: help@libdems.org.uk →

Call us: 020 7022 0988 →

Our phone lines are open between 09:30 and 17:30, Monday to Friday.

❤️ Need support?

We want our Members to enjoy being a part of the Liberal Democrats. But we know life can be difficult and sometimes we all need a bit of support.

If you're ever struggling, your Membership gives you access to free mental health support from the Health Assured Support Helpline and resilience coaching from Able Futures.

Understanding our Members

We want the Liberal Democrats to be as inclusive as possible. To enhance representation and inclusivity across the party, we ask that you take two minutes to participate in our diversity survey so we can better understand our membership and address any areas we could improve on.

If you have filled this out in the past, but your circumstances have changed, we'd be grateful if you could complete it again to update us.

Thank you!

Let's talk about Shantanu →

Dear Liberal Democrats Help Department

I am pleased to receive this email for it makes reference to mental health support if members feel they need it and I am relieved that it is a free to use service.

I have been regarded as a psychiatric patient for close to 25 years, and am currently on medications prescribed by the Consultant Psychiatrist at Britton House Gillingham, Kent.

I do not know anything about mental health but when the Samaritans stopped providing me with emotional support as laid out in the Care Plans issued to me by Britton House, I went to a psychotherapist by the name of Jill Jesson and have had 7-8 Sessions of therapy on Zoom with her. It costs me £60 per Session that as a pensioner I can ill-afford continuously.

The latest diagnosis of my mental disorder from Britton House is that I am paranoid schizophrenic and my psychotherapist diagnoses it a 'Split Mind'. But initially I was diagnosed by the NHS as suffering from persistent delusional disorder until Dr Masouds/Dr Odesanya came to monitor me as the Consultant Psychiatrists at Britton House. Dr Odesanya also suggested from a questionnaire assessment that I am autistic. A subsequent Consultant Psychiatrist suggested it to be bipolar with delusions. Megan CIC said it was Personality Disorder.

With the uncertainty concerning my mental well being I am in contact with Kent and Medway Partnership Trust's Patient Advisory and Liaison Service, as attached [:ToKMPTPAL(Head of Elections Medway Council)3Apr2024] Your Ref M24-03-127968)3Apr2024.docx.

People seem to misunderstand my true intentions, I have found, as should be clear from the correspondence I have had with Jane Ringham of Medway Council as attached (FrJaneRingham on my past employability after 17 years of service where I was sacked once again without a disciplinary hearing, even a kangaroo court Hearing that the University of Greenwich perpetrated on me in 1998 after 18 years of service in the Natural Resources Institute.

I have lost many jobs, that I took up since 1998 and also friendships as linked here:
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/fancy-meeting-up-sometime-paul>

So, I would like more details of who to contact for one to one support chat on my mental anxieties.

Thank you for your attention.

Yours sincerely

Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Good afternoon Dr Panigrahi,

Thank you for your email.

Over the recent years you have sent several emails containing inappropriate and offensive content to myself, the elections team generic email account, other staff and Councillors. In the light of those, your details have been removed from our election staff database and the Returning Officer will no longer be inviting you or your wife to undertake election duties.

From our point of view this is notice of the end of correspondence with you and we will not respond to any further emails or other contact from you.

To

Medway Council

I have been on the register for the role of Count Officer together with my wife Rashmi Panigrahi, me from the year 2005, but in the very recent past have not been called upon to provide these services.

I am not a member of a political party that is registered with the Election Commission, although for my investigative journalism had developed the idea of
<https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>
 I am hereby applying to be on the list of people who Medway Council require to assist at Elections both at the issuing and counting the postal votes and at the Count Centre on the night of the election date given this background.

Does my journalism as linked above bar me from being employed by Medway Council?

I would be grateful for your reply concerning this matter.

Further to my submissions in this Claim since the Hearing of the 20 January 2023 10 am was to take place or had started but adjourned (see attached

(TRUNCATED)

At 3.13 pm a Kelly Fong accepted my invitation to connect in LinkedIn, that is after this book 'Collecting the Dough' was updated, to prod a greeting response or something else. I took no action to greet her as the Court or the government has to pass judgement on the matter on damages and compensation to be awarded to me.

By 3.47 pm I had received no communication from anyone pending that required a reply from me.

All my websites are explicitly in the assessment by the Liberal Democrats by virtue of my email to the Party.

3.48 pm (UK-Time) 4 April 2024

At 4.04 pm read that in LinkedIn Sido accepted my invitation to connect.

16.08 pm (UK-Time) 4 April 2024

Comments:

If I ever go into LinkedIn to greet these two new connections, they will say 'I understand you are a psychiatric patient and that will finish me. All I can do if I get a text or email is reply Kelly Fong and Sido accepted my invitation to connect in LinkedIn. That is endorsement of my attainments; and take the conversation forwards from there. Similarly, I cannot contact the Liberal Democrats again by email or telephone for they will say the same thing, that you are a lunatic and we have investigated that with JE Castle and Medway Council in particular who will give evidence in their defences that it was they who were unfair towards me several years ago.'

So I am on my own now. I can develop my websites freely and/or look for work as a Consultant.

This Inghelram Jan that I sent the email to rings a bell as being a person at the European Court of Justice who terrorised me years ago if my memory serves me well. I certainly had communications with that person as the email address is in my Yahoo email contact list.

The situation as of now is that I still retain my membership of the Liberal Democrats and my work at LinkedIn. But only after the coast is clear. I will use the Inghelram Jan email in any email communication that I am forced to enter into.

This book cannot be updated any more in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop until the dough is collected by me.

Dear Sir

The United Kingdom's steadfast opposition to allow me to market and distribute my 187 eBooks each with ISBN Numbers published by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited <https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop> has this afternoon been referred back to the European Court of Justice on a long-standing pre-Brexit case for adjudication. It is a fundamental breach of the principle of freedom of expression besides being in the global interest.

I hope this clarifies the matter fully.

Instagram Fashion Blogging Job

950/wk remote job for people in your country

Hey y'all 🙌

We're hiring a remote worker from your country who can help a fashion blogger on Instagram upload photos to her page.

You'll be paid 950 bucks per week for doing so.

Click here if you are interested.

She has an Instagram page with 1.5 million followers, and she has to post 2-3 photos daily to keep engagement high. That's why she's looking for a helping hand for this, as she can't manage it by herself due to her busy schedule.

If you have a reliable internet connection, a laptop, a tablet, or even a smartphone, and a passion for fashion-related content, then you can apply and qualify for this post.

Ready to dive in? Click here to submit your application.

All the best :)

Charles at Writing Jobs

P.S. She's ready to hire newbies with no experience. That's because you're getting trained for everything at the very beginning. Apply now; only one position is available.

 Please pay now – penalty still overdue £400

We wrote to you recently about your overdue Corporation Tax penalty.
 We still haven't received your payment

It's important you pay or contact us now if you can't pay. If you don't, it could cost you more money.

Please pay now

You will find everything you need online:
 . Go to GOV.UK and search 'paying HMRC'
 . choose 'pay your Corporation Tax bill.'

Check your payment reference before you pay

It is important you use the right reference so we can allocate your payment correctly.

You'll find the correct reference in the 'How to pay' section on the enclosed statement. It will look something like this: 0123456789A00101A (this is an example not your reference).

Your payment reference changes with each accounting period, so you'll need to use a different one each time you pay.

If you use a banking app, make sure you don't reuse a previous reference.

If you can't pay now

Please call our customer support advisor on 0300 200 3845 (Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm).

If you still haven't filled your return

Please do so now. If you don't, we may charge you further penalties. We could also estimate how much Corporation Tax you need to pay – this is called a 'determination'.

You can find information on determinations online – go to GOV.UK and search 'determinations if you don't file'.

If you don't pay or contact us

We can take action to collect what you owe, but we only do this as a last resort. We want to work with you to find a way to pay – please contact us now to discuss available support.

For more information, go to GOV.UK and search 'If you do not pay your tax bill'.

If you have already paid

Thank you. Please allow 5 working days for your online account to update. You don't need to contact us if this shows your tax is up to date.

How to avoid penalty charges in the future

Please file your Company Tax Return – and pay the tax you owe on time.

You can read more about late-filing penalties online. Go to GOV.UK and search 'corporation tax penalties'.

If you have someone who helps you with your tax, you may want to show them this letter.

Yours faithfully

(b) <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/conspiracy-theories-yeah-or-nay>

In order for me to prepare for this Meeting, could Dr Oranusi assess the latest diagnosis of my mental disorder and send me a Report urgently based on the questions that are raised above, for I have received another intimidatory letter this morning from HMRC reimposing the £400 penalty on my Company, The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited that has written 187 eBooks which I am in the process of marketing and distributing worldwide through my website: <https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop>.

I would be grateful for legal purposes for an immediate acknowledgment of this email.

Dear Sirs

1. I believed that the matter referred to in your letter to me that I received in the post this morning as attached (FrHMRC(Document received in the post from HMRCPenalty) had been resolved by the Courts and that I did not have to pay anything to HMRC because the real culprits who had sabotaged my Company to render it dormant for the period of your penalty assessments) had been identified as working under cover of the Government of the United Kingdom as part of a national and international conspiracy of terrorism against me during the past 26 years for which the financial demand on the contrary is from the Treasury of the United Kingdom to be made payable to me as the victim is £100 million immediately especially in light of the lack of acknowledgement from KMPT PALS to the attached queries that I raised:

ToKMPTPALS(APPOINTMENT LETTER FROM BRITTON HOUSE FOR 11 AM 22 APRIL 2024)5Apr2024.

2. Kindly confirm this understanding of mine at this point in time.

$175/day for posting photos on Instagram

Online/Remote Position | Flexible

Hey y'all 🙌

No other social media can bring as much engagement to your brand's name as Instagram can. That's why many businesses nowadays hop on the bandwagon and try their best to be active on it.

And that's where they started needing ordinary folks like you and me to manage posting photos and videos of their products on their Instagram pages.

An educational startup is looking for two ordinary social media users. Their students and potential audiences are most active on Instagram, and that's why they also need to be super busy on it.

Ready to dive in? Click here to submit your application.

What You Will Be Doing:

Here, your job is to post premade content that the company will provide you with on their Instagram page.

This can include pictures, videos, and captions. You need to be available 12 to 15 hours a week for this job.

An internet connection, a smartphone, or a tablet are needed to download and post the content.

And the most important thing you need is a passion for Instagram and the ability to help someone who's in trouble.

No experience is needed at all. That's because full training will be provided to you initially. You have to know how to use Instagram and post photos on it. And even if you don't know, you'll be provided with complete training.

Kind Regards

Joseph at Writing Jobs

PS: As I said earlier, just be quick; this job is not for everyone. Only two open slots are left. Click here to complete your application now.

Update:

The Mobile Phone rang from a Spam Caller dialling from 0330 678 2523 at ~3.30 pm.

This was very ominous and I had to dispose off the Appointment at Britton House for the 22 April 2024, so dialled Britton House and spoke to the receptionist giving my name and date of birth that she asked for. I said then that I had received a letter from you in the post about an appointment. What is it about? What is the reason it does not say on the letter. She paused to check and then said 'Medical Review. You asked for it'. I said No I did not. She added 'and medications.' My medications are fine everything is settled now. It was months ago that I had requested (a Medications Review in effect). I continued: 'I cannot come to Britton House for an appointment. She said she would speak to someone about it. I cut off the phone line.

Moments later the Mobile Phone rang from Britton House 0300 303 3189. I did not answer the phone.

I needed to complete the formalities so one is not criticised first; hence:

Silence all round. No emails coming, Nothing coming in Linkedin, Phone not ringing from a Spam Caller. Looks like struggle is all over. I have my websites and books that they finally got HMRC to try and dismantle. They will have to go to Court for that and it is already in the European Court of Justice quite legitimately.

Published this book as an update in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop.

After that published the email sent to HMRC, Central London County Court and the European Court of Justice in Daily Bulletin tweeting and posting it in Vishista Advaita Sampradaya page of Facebook:

Countdown to the General Election

Hi Shantanu,

Welcome to this week's Campaigners Update - your round-up of the latest materials, training and resources from the Campaigns & Elections Team.

Local Election Templates

For those of you with local elections, the Campaigns & Elections Team have produced template materials to help you with your leaflets - right up to polling day. You can find them on the Campaign Hub.

April Templates 2 →

April Templates 3 →

April Templates 4 →

Polling Week Templates →

Maraphone is back - and you can get involved

Are you looking for a way to make a difference and help elect more Liberal Democrats? If yes, then Maraphone is for you!

Between 7 - 9pm on Monday and Wednesday evenings, we have the opportunity for members from across the country to come together in online team phoning sessions.

We know that many of our members and activists are already incredibly busy as we gear up for known elections on May 2 and the General Election (whenever it may be called!). But if you want to try your hand at a spot of phoning or even just find out how the system works so that you can use the campaigning skill locally, then come and get involved.

You can sign up to attend these sessions here →

Training on the Campaign Hub

Over the next few weeks, keep up to date with your training via the Campaign Hub.

For those of you with local elections this May, the Campaigns & Elections team have a host of recorded training sessions on the Hub to help you.

Finding the training here →

Cheaper Postage Rates

The Campaigns and Election team have negotiated new, cheaper postage rates for all Lib Dem local parties.

Onepost will now charge 41.05p per item (including VAT) for quantities over 4000. This is a substantial saving on previous prices.

You can use any printer you like - just let them know to use Onepost for the postage. You'll need a Onepost account for your local party, which can be set up through our account manager: Ursula.McBride@thedeliverygroup.co.uk or 07738 890 986.

For quantities under 4,000, Whistl currently provide the best price at 57p per item. If you need help or have any questions, please contact the party's Print & Procurement Officer, Pav, on pawan.brahmbhatt@libdems.org.uk.

Comments:

I will continue to record these terroristic communications until the stop here. Will not respond. There is no one to complain to. The European Court of Justice is unable to stop these persecutory activities. The Court of Central London or the criminal courts are all under government control; government means the Establishment that is confirmed as being dictatorial. The only way to deal with it is by non-cooperation as I did to Britton House by turning down the appointment of 22 April 2024 11 am with Dr Emmanuel Oranusi. These Consultant Psychiatrists and the institutions of the National Health Service under which they operate are all government-controlled. So they have to arrest me again or come to the house and do their mental health assessment as they did in 2004 and 2008 in sectioning me in the mental hospital. All 7 arrests of myself from 15 September 2021 were government controlled.

The Political Parties are all government-controlled as evidenced by the hundreds of well timed Spam Calls that were made to my Mobile Phone and the Landline Phone, including today. The trolling over several years on me and my contacts were all government-engineered.

The Courts were all ordered not to give me an opening to cover up the State-organised terrorism and victimisation on me.

They continued to fish for an way into me under orders to LinkedIn, Facebook and Instagram. Even Twitter in the very early days before it came under new management was manipulated to close down my Account. Wordpress and Lulu were similarly ordered to close my Accounts after books were sold. Now I do not know why no one has purchased any books from <https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop> Is it lack of interest in the contents or have they been stopped. Until books are sold there is to be no cooperation with the State authorities.

06.16 am (UK-Time) 6 April 2024

THE START OF A NEW WAVE OF EXISTENCE

That time has finally arrived at 06.53 am hours (UK-Time) 6 April 2024, the war-game being over, it is time to settle down to mundane life of gentle work, plenty of rest, and playing with one's toys that I have attained in the existence of my websites, going on more holidays, and just chilling the rest of the time.

The rest of this book will be a different kind of book, no correspondence would be entered, just thoughts and playthings from my websites. Or at least that is the plan.

It have two ISBN numbers free and I am not going to purchase anymore. These books when written would be straight for the publishers when ready or may never be published. I am a writer so I write, and this is the reason that my thoughts need to be recorded for posterity.

There will be no dates and times no updates on external developments on those two books because I have written the final chapter of the book 'The Allurement of Reality'. In other words my Realisation is complete.

As things turned out I am now minded to consider that I took up membership of the Liberal Democrats Party as a tactical move to withstand persecution that I was not welcome in the political circles or government, so I lacked credibility. This was bad for my reputation. I had explored in depth over all my adult life what these three political parties that form the bulk of people representation in Parliament are and then there was United Kingdom Independence Party that was specifically campaigning to exit the European Union that seemed to me in my naivety to be a good thing, but from the research that conducted, it was to be free of the European Court of Justice and now the European Court of Human Rights that is being debated by the Conservative and Unionist Party and the Brexit-reformed Reform Party.

From a strictly personal angle as a young man in his forties, I felt that independence for the individual and independence for the nation went hand in hand, so I joined the Brexit Party. Independence and Libertarianism are not synonymous by any stretch of the imagination. I am not independent because I rely on my wife to earn money and look after the home essentials, and I rely on the State to arrange the infrastructure that we live in so that we can have comfortable lifestyles. Independence from European Union is highly detrimental to the libertarian spirit as it is a drive towards a dictatorial Establishment in the United Kingdom which makes slaves out of people.

Labour are similarly authoritarian under the new leadership of Keir Starmer so whilst there is no harm in being socially conscious, it is a socialist-authoritarianism that we will get I fear, much like when Tony Blair came to power for the Labour Party and single-mindedly started wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. I suffered unimaginable terrorism for my Conservative Libertarianism and none of the three parties incorporate the principles and ethos of what I have founded. It is just political and reputational expediency that I will continue to vote for the Liberal Democrats but will not go to their annual general meetings or conference for I will see nothing in common with the Party except the superficialities of campaigning against specific environmental problems and human rights issues. I am a proven entrepreneur who mounted the greatest escapes from persecution in the history of mankind whilst being a foreigner in the United Kingdom. This was because I was destined to fight a war against the State of the United Kingdom engineered by the preordination and pre-orchestration of the Grand Design of Creation by Sri Krishna my Lord and Saviour.

The Medway Liberal Democrats contacted me yesterday evening awarding me a badge on Facebook as a recognition of my contributions to the local party. I accepted the badge as follows:

PREFACE

I have had a very promising start to my association with the Liberal Democrats, the political party of the United Kingdom that I joined on 1 April 2024. I had been a party member a number of years ago but due to the arrival of the Brexit issue that I in my naivety was then in favour of, I left the Party. Now I believed in humanity and internationalism and campaign to rejoin the European Union so it was appropriate that I became a member of the Party once again.

Dear Colleagues in Liberal Democrats.

I would on this Saturday morning like to express my heart-felt joy that I have been accepted back into the Party as a Member and as our recent correspondence shows with the Campaigners Hub and contact with the local Party here in Medway I will campaign for the Party in both the local and national elections in the United Kingdom.

The Party may not be aware that I am the Director of a Publishing Company registered with Companies House in which I elaborate my impressions of life in the United Kingdom over the past 50 years.

I will promote the Liberal Democrats Party from hereon in as attached: REJOINING LIBERAL DEMOCRATS.pdf. The book will chart the developments in the Party at the local and national level and I will submit it to the Party from Time to time for approval of its contents, if it is necessary for me to do so.

Wishing all of you my high regards for the principles and traditions of the Party.

Yours sincerely

Hi Shantanu,

As Head of Network at Connectd, I help prospective Board Advisors, Fractional C-Suite Executives and Non-Executive Directors (NEDs) connect with our portfolio of startups.

I would really like to understand more about your interest in pursuing roles with these organisations, as it looks like you could be an interesting fit for us given your experience.

It would be great to schedule a call to discuss your interests in taking on board roles with some of our early-stage startups.

You can access my team's meeting link to discuss suitable roles below. I look forward to welcoming you to our advisor network soon.

Kind regards,

Benjamin

I updated this book in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop up to this point thinking that this book 'Collecting the dough' always needs to be updated for the State-authorities through any of its institutions can pass judgment without a Hearing, be that Kent Police on complaint

CO/999/23, the Central London County Court on Claim E35YM660, the European Court of Justice, or HMRC or even Dr Emmanuelle Oranusi at the Appointment of 22 April 2024 11.00 AM that I cannot avoid without repercussions on me whether or not he provides me with a Report on my diagnosis before then with addressing the queries that I had raised to KMTPALS that is now in the public domain even if not explicitly acknowledged by anyone to date.

However, at 11.58 pm on this Saturday morning with no acknowledgement coming from the Liberal Democrats to the email that I sent it, and a new connection being made that I detected on my Network in LinkedIn that I took no action on by greeting or sending a message to the person, there will be no further updating of this book in The Allurement of Reality in Review Shop to force a Hearing with this evidence. There will also be no further updating the book 'Joining Liberal Democrats.

Hello Agne

I also invited about 12 new connections in Linkedin to dispose of the Liberal Democrats for not replying to my email this morning, Clark not replying to two emails, no mental health support that they promised me and no direct debit replacement set up that Mike Dixon was asked to arrange. In other words a total waste of time.

Liberal Democrats

Your Latest Briefing from the Liberal Democrats.

Ed Davey MP, Daisy Cooper MP, PPC Victoria Collins and supporters at the local elections launch, with a giant hourglass branded with the words, 'Time's running out Rishi!'

Time's running out for the Conservatives, Shantanu!

The local elections on May 2nd are a chance to send the Conservatives a clear message. And although Rishi Sunak may have bottled a General Election for the same day, we must be ready. As Ed Davey said at our local elections campaign launch in Harpenden, 'Time's running out Rishi!'

Watch BBC News Coverage →

But to remove this woeful Conservative Government and elect many new fantastic Liberal Democrats at all levels, we need your help.

We know a lot of you will already be doing so much for the Party - thank you for your incredible work.

If you're not already involved or wish to contribute more, could you lend a hand over the next few weeks? You could help a local election campaign, if you have one in your area or nearby, or help work towards the General Election.

Whether it's door-knocking, phone banking, leaflet delivery, or administrative tasks, every bit helps.

Be sure to watch and share our Party Election Broadcast for the local elections, which premiered this Thursday:

Lib Dems call for a suspension of arms exports to Israel

Following the deaths of seven aid workers including three British nationals in an Israeli air strike in Gaza, Ed Davey called on the government to suspend arms to Israel.

We've called for tougher controls on our arms exports for years, to rule-out British arms ever being used in conflicts such as the devastating one in Gaza.

Last week, we welcomed the UN Security Council's motion calling for an immediate ceasefire. We've pushed for an immediate bilateral ceasefire for months now, to end the conflict, free the hostages and get humanitarian aid in.

Our new policy to fund public services and boost investment

During her speech to Spring Conference, Sarah Olney MP set out our policy to tax big corporations when they buy their own shares.

We will place a 4% tax on any share buybacks by FTSE-100 companies, which would raise around £2bn annually based on current buyback levels.

Not only will this raise vital funds for public services, but it will incentivise businesses to make productive investments to create jobs, boost growth, and support green industries.

10 years since the first same-sex marriage in England and Wales on 29th March

This anniversary is a time to celebrate marriage equality but also remember the on-going struggle for greater equality.

The BBC marked the occasion with a special programme, featuring LGBTQ+ trailblazers and politicians. This included former Lib Dem MP (now Baroness) Lynne Featherstone, who was instrumental in bringing the legislation to Parliament, as well as Lib Dem PPC Helen Belcher (Reading West and Mid Berkshire) who talked about the continuing battle for equality of trans people.

Mike Martin - Leader's Award

Recognized for exemplary dedication to canvassing, this winner is leading from the front and putting the fright into local Conservatives. As Tunbridge Wells' PPC, Mike has spoken with an amazing 3,909 voters from last May to the end of February, significantly boosting the local Party's General Election efforts and motivating us all to hit the campaign trail.

Appropriately, Mike was out canvassing during the awards ceremony, so his award was collected on his behalf by fellow PPC, Jess Brown-Fuller.

Woking Liberal Democrats - The Bertha Bowness Fischer Award

Named after a pioneering female election agent - this year's winner has built an incredible delivery network, which as we all know is essential for success. Their current network is now covering 9 in 10 doors in Woking with people delivering their own street, fuelling an impressive run of election victories, including defeating every Conservative candidate by taking 4 more seats from them last May.

Darryl Smalley - The Albert Ingham Award

Named after another great election agent, this award is given for a great election win. Last December in the East Midlands, Darryl led the campaign in a ward we didn't even stand in before, for a council with no Lib Dems for more than a decade. But Darryl's flair, enthusiasm and signature tropical outfits helped get Adrian elected as our new councillor. Congratulations to them both, and thanks for your dedication, Darryl!

Ami Wyllie - The Laura Grimond award

This award recognises someone's pivotal contributions behind-the-scenes.

A popular colleague at Lib Dem HQ, honoured with many nominations from fellow staff and appreciation from journalists for her Lib Dem branded baked goods, you'll most likely recognise Ami's work as the mastermind behind our stunts, photo ops and conference rallies - gaining us nationwide media attention.

There have been more fantastic council by-election wins for the Lib Dems over the past month, all thanks to our wonderful campaigners.

We achieved Lib Dem holds in Wiltshire, Somerset and Cornwall and a sensational gain from the Conservatives in Cambridgeshire.

Congratulations to all those elected and to their amazing teams!

These results show what we are capable of in the local elections across England on May 2nd. So let's get out there and elect even more fantastic Lib Dem councillors!

President's Report: What does a successful general election look like?

This month's report by Party President Mark Pack focuses on our General Election strategy, which concentrates our efforts on the most winnable seats. Mark also highlights inspiring stories from our party award winners and local parties with remarkable recruitment results.

Dear Colleagues in Liberal Democrats.

I would on this Saturday morning like to express my heart-felt joy that I have been accepted back into the Party as a Member and as our recent correspondence shows with the Campaigners Hub and contact with the local Party here in Medway I will campaign for the Party in both the local and national elections in the United Kingdom.

The Party may not be aware that I am the Director of a Publishing Company registered with Companies House in which I elaborate my impressions of life in the United Kingdom over the past 50 years.

I will promote the Liberal Democrats Party from hereon in as attached: REJOINING LIBERAL DEMOCRATS.pdf. The book will chart the developments in the Party at the local and national level and I will submit it to the Party from time to time for approval of its contents, if it is necessary for me to do so.

Wishing all of you my high regards for the principles and traditions of the Party.

Yours sincerely

PREFACE

I have had a very promising start to my association with the Liberal Democrats, the political party of the United Kingdom that I joined on 1 April 2024. I had been a party member a number of years ago but due to the arrival of the Brexit issue that I in my naivety was then in favour of, I left the Party. Now I believed in humanity and internationalism and campaign to rejoin the European Union so it was appropriate that I became a member of the Party once again.

After toing and from through all kinds of concepts in the political sphere where one wishes to take part in the development of the society that one lives in the author of these websites Dr Shantanu Panigrahi rejoined the Liberal Democrats on 1 April 2024.

One needs to be socially conscious and for this one needs to have the highest ideals of what the values should be and that for me was humanity and internationalism.

In the attached book that I have started I will narrate my progression through this phase of my life at the age of 67.

 In UK culture, being liberal is of a superior value ideal to libertarianism which is unbridled independence and therefore lacking in the social consciousness that is needed for the cohesion in society that occurs when liberalism is incorporated into democracy.

21.54 pm (UK-Time) 6 April 2024

It follows therefore that there has to be culture change in the United Kingdom before Conservative Libertarianism becomes a widely-accepted political institution hence the Conservative Libertarian Society (<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>) and its political offshoot The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (<https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>) never stood a chance and intellectually condemned by castigating the Founder in mental hospitals twice and attempting to boot him out of the country, or imprisoning him in a prison or another longer spell in a mental hospital. The Monarch is not only the head of State, but also the Head of the Church of England the Anglican church of Protestantism who could not stomach karma in sanatan dharma that draws its inspiration from the God of the Hindus Sri Krishna. This is why I was doing menial jobs for 25 years with my qualifications and scientific attainments in which I was enacting Conservative Libertarianism in practice both in Cameroon and in Zimbabwe as a karma yogi. Chucked out of even menial jobs for the same reason I was secluded in the home still doing my writing in websites to end up creating 23 websites and 187 eBooks that no one subscribed to let alone purchase from <https://theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop> website.

Finally, I had to chose the least of three evils and found membership of the Liberal Democrats who are tolerant and all-inclusive of races, religions, gender, caste and sexual orientation. They are tolerating me also as a mental lunatic that I explicitly informed the Party about. And two days ago the State-attempted to enforce me into the Community Mental Health Team in Britton House that I resisted, calling their bluff with written evidence that I was sane.

I could never truth-accommodate with evil; dharma comes first and sanatan dharma at that.

22.22 pm (UK-Time) 6 April 2024

So abandoned the book ‘Rejoining the Liberal Democrats’, transferring what was already published here as above. I will focus on The Conservative Libertarian Society and its offshoots from now on as my principles cannot be compromised.

Dear Colleagues in Liberal Democrats

I am grateful for your email yesterday the 6th of April 2024 'Whats new with the Lib Dems' on the latest briefing from the Liberal Democrats.

If I was to make a small contribution to the debate, the attached summary of my involvements may be taken into account. It represents my approach that the United Kingdom could be a truly multi-cultural State that is all-inclusive and fosters the needs of the diverse range of people within it, not just race, religion, sexual orientation, but also development that includes factors such as age mental disorders and gender.

The book that I am in the process of writing as attached, REJOINING THE LIBERAL DEMOCRATS' is herewith submitted to the Party hierarchy as food for thought for progress towards a meeting of minds going forwards employing a 'steady as she goes' philosophy.

Yours sincerely

Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Update:

At 7.43 am texted Mike Dixon on WhatsApp: Mike, I do not get any replies to my suggestions and concerns to the Party hierarchy. I need to know if I have made a mistake in joining.'

Mike Dixon replied: 'I am on annual leave until Tuesday 9th and am not checking messages. I will reply when I can.

I texted back at 7.46 am: 'I will vote for Liberal Democrats, but will my heart and soul be in the Party. It remains to be seen'.

RESUMPTION OF THE STRUGGLE TO COLLECT THE DOUGH

At 11.05 am on 10 April 2024, my foray into the Liberal Democrat came to an end when the Party did not reply to a single one of my emails and especially on whether I would be allowed to change my method of payment to Direct Debit for a life time membership of the Party. The details are contained in the book 'REJOINING LIBERAL DEMOCRATS' that for legal reasons is now available only in <https://theallurementofreality.com/shop> for legal reasons.

Now's a great time to open

a cash ISA

Hello SHANTANU,

It's a new tax year, so it's a great time to open a cash ISA (Individual Savings Account).

You can pay in up to £20,000 this tax year (6 April 2024 to 5 April 2025). You don't have to pay in the full £20,000 over the tax year, or pay it in one go – just what you can, when you can. Plus, the moment you open a cash ISA with us, you won't pay tax on any interest it earns.

Terms, conditions and ISA rules apply.

Make money work for you

What is an ISA?

You can read our guide to ISAs to learn more about what they are and how they work.

Is it time to invest?

If you're looking to save for the longer term, you could open an Investment (Stocks & Shares) ISA. The sooner you do, the sooner you could grow your money tax-free.

It's quick and easy to open an account, and you can start investing with just £50.

Investments can fall as well as rise so you might not get back what you invest. Terms, conditions and ISA rules apply.

Dear Becky

Thanks a lot for this information.

I am already in the Campaigners Hub and have just checked the Compliance Events, and have it on my Callender. For the 11.30-12.00 am pm Meeting this morning I invited John Castle and Lyn Ibeji to have a chat with me but they did not turn up so I was looking at a blank screen

There is a great deal of work to be done and I am ready and willing now that the legal matters have come to shuddering end. I did not get a penny in damages and compensation from the government of the United Kingdom on Case E35YM660 at the Central London County Court, so besides having spent thousands of pounds in litigating and in conducting private prosecutions, the University of Greenwich has gone scot-free as have several other employers over these past 26 years. On top of that District Judge Lightman awarded costs to the Prime Minister of £4170 as attached: CentralLondonCountyCourtOrder 21 June 2021 (District Judge Lightman).pdf.

Still, that is what we all are up against in the Liberal Democrats to attempt to rectify.

Yours sincerely

Hi Michael,

It's great connecting with you. We both studied at University of Reading. How have you been?

17.14 pm (UK-Time) 10 April 2024

I will have nothing to do with the Liberal Democrats: todays events was the last straw. They are not even guaranteed my vote at the forthcoming local and general elections. I cannot sacrifice my principles of how an economy and country should be governed unless these are adopted by a Party. I remain a Conservative Libertarian, now that all the legal hurdles have been overcome for me.

We appreciate that you have received some automated emails that might have suggested that your membership was accepted, including the invitation to join the Campaign Hub and the “What’s new with the Lib Dems” email.

This is NOT the case. As your membership has been rejected, your fees will be refunded to you. Your membership application has been refused on the grounds of inappropriate communications to local and regional party officers when you were last a member in October 2022.

Any person whose membership is refused does have a right of appeal, which must be made in writing within 14 days of the applicant being advised of the refusal to admit, and which shall be dealt with in accordance with the guidance published under Article 23. Participation in the Party's Registered Supporter Scheme may be refused by the Federal People Development Committee on the grounds set out in (a) and (b).  Dear Mr Paul Farthing

I did not receive an acknowledgement from Membership to the queries that I had submitted below, nor from the Circuit Judge at the Central London County Court where I believed the matter was in the process of being resolved.

In these circumstances, I wish to appeal against the refusal to accept my membership of the Party immediately. You say that I had sent out inappropriate emails to the local party members in 2022. Please send me copies of my offending materials that led to your notice yesterday evening that my application has been refused because I intend to defend my reputation as an honest person who has always acted properly in my dealings with everyone with whom I have been in contact with over the past 26 years, not just within the Liberal Democrats Party.

I have therefore no recollection of having sent out the malicious emails that you have referred to, and certainly none of the party workers including John Castle, Lynn Iboji and Anna Tarrant had voiced these concerns to me directly.

I look forward to your reply

Yours sincerely

Dr Shantanu Panigrahi

Legal Representatives

Please note that from Monday 14th February 2022 it is now mandatory for professional users to submit all documents (e.g. bundles, skeleton arguments, application notices etc.) via E-Filing. General correspondence may be sent by email.

CE-File <https://efile.cefile-app.com/login?referer=%2F>

CE-File Information & Support <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/ce-file-system-information-and-support-advice>

This is pursuant to Practice Direction 51O of the CPR and the Practice Note which supplements it.

For Unrepresented Parties only

URGENT applications should be submitted to the court via email to this address:

civilappeals.urgentwork@justice.gov.uk between 9am and 4.15 pm

What may be deemed as urgent:

Cases where in the interests of justice a substantive decision is required within 7 days. The types of work listed below fall into this category

- Child cases
- Committal appeals
- Applications for stay of removal
- Evictions
- Cases (including ancillary applications) with a hearing listed in the Court of Appeal within the next month
- Applications for an urgent stay of execution
- Covid-19 related cases e.g., medical guidance regarding priority patients

NON-URGENT applications should be emailed to: civilappeals.registry@justice.gov.uk

This auto response is confirmation that your email has been received and you will not receive a separate acknowledgement. Staff will follow the internal processes that have been established to process your application as quickly as possible.

All appellant's notices will be accepted in the first instance on the basis that they may be rejected at a later date for want of jurisdiction.

Fresh applications for permission to appeal must include:

- a completed appellant's notice (form N161)
- grounds of appeal on a separate sheet
- The appropriate court fee via your PBA account, a completed Help with Fees form (EX160) or by contacting the RCJ Fees Office on 0203 936 8957 or by emailing RCJfeespayments@justice.gov.uk between the hours of 10:00am and 16:00pm, Monday to Friday (except bank holidays)
- a copy of the sealed order being appealed.

- A transcript of judgment should also be provided if available (or should be ordered immediately)

The public counter at E307 (Registry) remains closed, however a drop box facility is available at the main entrance into the Royal Courts of Justice.

Once the appellant's notice is issued, all queries should be emailed to the appropriate following addresses:

Civilappeals.cmsa@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmsb@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmsc@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.listing@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.associates@justice.gov.uk

The court will issue orders electronically in the first instance.

You can find contact details for other courts in other jurisdictions at the Courts & Tribunals Finder.

 Hi Connor,
 It's great connecting with you. How have you been?

09.20 am (UK-Time) 12 April 2024

Update:

I telephoned Britton House at 10.20 am and spoke to the receptionist: I told her that I was a patient of theirs and had sent a few emails to KMTPALS and wondered what is the situation on legal side because I am not legally trained. I have an appointment on 22 April 2024 at Britton House. She said you will have to take that up with KMPT. I asked if I could come to Britton House and speak to someone about it. She said No we are not a walk-in service. She took down my name and confirmed the appointment of 22 April 2024. So, I asked what should I prepare for what is going to be talked about? She said it is about your mental health and how you are coping with things generally. I asked could my wife come with me to the appointment. She said Yes she could. I said 'Thank you very much for clarifying that. Bye. The call ended.

I then posted my constructed legalities document sent to Jesssica DaCosta in Daily Bulletin Forum:

You could be owed £1000s in compensation.

The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) is investigating high commissions charged on car and van finance before 28 January 2021.

This comes after concerns from consumers alleging their vehicle finance contract was more expensive so their dealer stood to earn a larger commission.

I telephoned the Maidstone Crown Court and spoke to the lady-person in the Administrative Office. Told her that I have had a case running since 2019 against Kent Police but it got stalled because the solicitor who was dealing with it left the company. Since then, I have been persecuted non stop by Kent Police and wanted a new Listing for the Case. I have approached over a hundred law firms and none would come to my aid. She asked if I have a reference number I said I have the Kent Police Reference Number CO/999/23. She said No that is not one of ours. It would one beginning with T or S, ?,...> I said I had an Appeal Mention to Fix Number that relates to the Hearing. I can dig out a number and contact you again. Thank you for now. Bye Call ended at 15.23 pm.

Ownership of cats may be associated with development of schizophrenia-related disorders, a study indicates

in General Discussion
<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/forum/general-discussion/ownership-of-cats-may-be-associated-with-development-of-schizophrenia-related-disorders-a-study-indicates>

TCLS is very sceptical of any such link; mental disorders of schizophrenia are a symptom of coping with the external world and inner innate compulsions in human beings from what I have experienced over a long period of time. If one longs for freedom and one is cooked up in the modern economy where one has to earn a living to set rules and regulations the individual unless he or she has attained full knowledge lives under delusions of what is the Reality.

Cats have been around for a very long time domesticated into habitation with humans.

To
 Maidstone Crown Court

Dear Sir/Madam

Further to developing proceedings on Criminal Conspiracy against me, the perpetrators are apparently not aware that they are the subjects of a private prosecution by myself and have sent in the attached material to further terrorise me, or they are in deliberate contempt of the Crown Court.

The Liberal Democrats are duplicitous knowing fully well that I am a Conservative Libertarian (as the Cats and its link to schizophrenia post of mine in my website (<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>) shows and they knew this prior to letting me into the Party on 1 April 2024; but now have falsified evidence on my correspondence in 2022 to dismiss me from rejoining the Party.

Kindly send these and Kent Police the required summons.

Yours sincerely

in General Discussion

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/forum/general-discussion/ownership-of-cats-may-be-associated-with-development-of-schizophrenia-related-disorders-a-study-indicates>

TCLS is very sceptical of any such link; mental disorders of schizophrenia are a symptom of coping with the external world and inner innate compulsions in human beings from what I have experienced over a long period of time. If one longs for freedom and one is cooked up in the modern economy where one has to earn a living to set rules and regulations the individual unless he or she has attained full knowledge lives under delusions of what is the Reality.

Cats have been around for a very long time domesticated into habitation with humans.

 Dear Slater and Gordon

I was of the belief that I had paid you £100 as a down-payment for your legal services but do not have a record that Daniel Cook suing Kent Police at Maidstone Crown Court refunded it before he left Slater and Gordon with this unfinished business.

You could be owed £1000s in compensation.

The Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) is investigating high commissions charged on car and van finance before 28 January 2021.

This comes after concerns from consumers alleging their vehicle finance contract was more expensive so their dealer stood to earn a larger commission.

I telephoned the Maidstone Crown Court and spoke to the lady-person in the Administrative Office. Told her that I have had a case running since 2019 against Kent Police but it got stalled because the solicitor who was dealing with it left the company. Since then, I have been persecuted non stop by Kent Police and wanted a new Listing for the Case. I have approached over a hundred law firms and none would come to my aid. She asked if I have a reference number I said I have the Kent Police Reference Number CO/999/23. She said No that is not one of ours. It would one beginning with T or S, ?,...> I said I had an Appeal Mention to Fix Number that relates to the Hearing. I can dig out a number and contact you again. Thank you for now. Bye

To
 Maidstone Crown Court

Dear Sir/Madam

Further to developing proceedings on Criminal Conspiracy against me, the perpetrators are apparently not aware that they are the subjects of a private prosecution by myself and have sent in the attached material to further terrorise me, or they are in deliberate contempt of the Crown Court.

The Liberal Democrats are duplicitous knowing fully well that I am a Conservative Libertarian (as the Cats and its link to schizophrenia post of mine in my website (<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>) shows and they knew this prior to letting me into the Party on 1 April 2024; but now have falsified evidence on my correspondence in 2022 to dismiss me from rejoining the Party.

Kindly send these and Kent Police the required summons.

Countdown to the General Election

Hi Shantanu,

Welcome to this week's Campaigners Update - your round-up of the latest materials, training and resources from the Campaigns & Elections Team.

Sewage Pack - England & Wales

The Lib Dems are continuing to call on the Water Companies and the Conservative Government to deal with the horrendous state of our rivers and streams with data showing sewage dumping has doubled over the past two years.

Use this campaign pack to fight for this issue locally, which includes a leaflet drop in, template press release and data on sewage spills across England and Wales.

Find it here →

Guidance on websites

The Tech Team have put together guidance, primarily for PPCs, on setting up a website.

This guide tells you how you can set your own website up, via Fleet, and remain compliant.

Find the guide here →

Training on the Campaign Hub

Over the next few weeks, keep up to date with your training via the Campaign Hub.

For those of you with local elections this May, the Campaigns & Elections team have a host of recorded training sessions on the Hub to help you.

Access the Training here →

Local Election Templates

With our year round Volume Plan, the Campaigns & Elections Team have produced a whole range of templates which can be used at any point.

Check them out and make sure you're on track to win on May 2nd! We have weekly templates between now and polling day.

Volume Plan Templates →

Get involved with the maraphone

Are you looking for a way to make a difference and help elect more Liberal Democrats? If yes, then Maraphone is for you!

Between 7 - 9pm on Monday and Wednesday evenings, we have the opportunity for members from across the country to come together in online team phoning sessions.

We know that many of our members and activists are already incredibly busy as we gear up for known elections on May 2 and the General Election (whenever it may be called!). But if you want to try your hand at a spot of phoning, or even just find out how the system works, so that you can use the campaigning skill locally, then come and get involved.

TCLS is very sceptical of any such link; mental disorders of schizophrenia are a symptom of coping with the external world and inner innate compulsions in human beings from what I have experienced over a long period of time. If one longs for freedom and one is cooked up in the modern economy where one has to earn a living to set rules and regulations the individual unless he or she has attained full knowledge lives under delusions of what is the Reality.

Cats have been around for a very long time domesticated into habitation with humans.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in the Magistrates Court of in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

Hello Shantanu,

Local elections in England and Wales are less than a month away. This will be the last chance people have to vote before a General Election.

So what do we expect to happen?

What is our plan to keep moving forward?

And what do we think the results will mean for the future of our country?

This is one of our longer ‘explainer’ emails that tries to set out our thinking and analysis. It includes our internal canvassing and literature data, and our best estimates of what will happen. (Please do not forward this email outside our party!)

Momentum

In politics, momentum is almost everything. Once voters think a party is in decline, they stop listening. And it becomes harder to get their attention or trust.

Right now, we have momentum. The chart below shows the last six results in May local elections in England.

Bar chart showing net change in councillors by party (May elections only).

Note: How charts look depends on your device. On most devices you should be able to click or tap to see a larger version.

Overall, we have done better than any other party, with particularly big gains in 2019 and in 2023.

We have now moved forwards for 5 years in a row - the first time we have done this since the Iraq war.

We have 3,000 councillors. And we lead 67 councils across England and Wales.

But what about the other parties?

The basic story is that local election results have followed big picture political trends.

Labour were losing seats year on year until 2022, and are now almost back to where they were in 2016. These elections are critical for them in terms of showing sustained momentum, which is why they are directing activists in their “non-battleground” seats towards places they think they can win.

The Greens have steadily grown, partly as a result of electoral pacts allowing them to get footholds they have used to increase councillor numbers over time.

The Conservatives have been on an electoral rollercoaster. Under Theresa May, they had big wins in 2017 before the ‘snap’ election, followed by big losses (largely to us) in 2019.

Johnson won a few seats in 2021 on the back of the post-lockdown ‘vaccine bounce’ experienced by incumbent governments across the world.

And then Johnson lost hundreds of seats in 2022, with Sunak losing more than a thousand in 2023.

These recent trends have all continued over the past year: looking at council byelection results since May, you can see Labour coming out just about neck and neck; Liberal Democrats gaining seats from all parties, especially the Conservatives; and the Greens moving forward too.

Chart showing switch of council seats between the parties.

Contests this May

Local elections are complicated. There are different systems, places and contexts. The mood matters more for some seats than others. The performance of the local council or prominent local politicians can shift things too.

Here is the big picture: the three main contests this year are 2,655 local councillor elections in England, 10 Mayoral elections in England, and 37 Police and Crime Commissioner elections in England and Wales.

This is a relatively small set of elections in terms of councillors: last year more than 8,000 seats were up for election. This means there is less scope for dramatic change.

Most of these seats were last contested in May 2021, soon after lockdowns had ended. Back then, the Conservatives had a 9 point lead over Labour in national polls and gained 235 council seats widely recognised at the time as the “vaccination bounce”. Labour lost more than 300 seats in a disappointing night for them.

Line graph showing support for each party over time.

This May, the council seats up for election in England are largely metropolitan / Red Wall areas. The map below shows the current political control of councils where there are elections, with lighter colours showing minority control.

Pay particular attention to the dark red areas. In many of these Labour controlled councils, especially in the Red Wall, the Conservatives picked up handfuls of seats in 2021.

What Labour need to prove is that they can win these kinds of seats and voters back. That is their only route to even a minority administration.

Map of England showing council control by party.

Here is the same map for Police and Crime Commissioner elections and Mayoral elections. These contests both have enormous constituencies and so tend to follow national polls much more closely than local elections.

(As a result, they are much more expensive and harder to win through Liberal Democrat campaigning techniques.)

Map of England and Wales showing current PCC seats by party and map of England showing current mayoral seats by party.

On polling day itself, most places plan to count the PCC elections first, then the Mayoral results, and the local councillor elections last.

This matters in terms of the media story, which is often framed in the early hours as the first few results come in.

(Annoyingly for Liberal Democrats, the councils where we have the best prospects of moving forward are largely those that will count votes last - so it is going to be harder than ever before to get positive media coverage for our successes.)

The upshot of this combination of geography and count timing is that the media will see this as a Red Wall election, essentially asking whether Labour’s poll lead is translating effectively into actual votes won and seats gained.

If the Conservatives lose their two Mayors and a swathe of council seats, that will put huge pressure on Sunak as Prime Minister.

And just three weeks later comes a moment of real jeopardy: the half-yearly release of international migration statistics on 23 May that is likely to cause a media furore and at least a temporary spike in support for Reform.

Why this matters: people's lives

The reason these elections matter is simple: local politicians control a huge amount of what happens in our country. And the decisions they make are getting harder by the day.

The single biggest reason for this is a cut of more than 40% in the local government funding settlement since 2015 in real terms. This has meant local authorities need to raise more money locally from council tax and business rates, and/or cut services.

Graph showing local government funding settlement over time.

In practice this has meant most local authorities have cut ‘discretionary’ services, and diverted more of their shrinking pot towards statutory services which they have a legal duty to provide.

Ten years ago, social care for children and adults took up 52% of spending at local government level. Today it takes up 61%. The chart below shows the detail.

Pie charts showing local government spending by spending type for 2013/14 and 2023/24.

Fundamentally, the elections in a few weeks time decide how difficult decisions like these are made. What kind of values underpin them?

Liberal Democrat councillors are rightly famous for listening carefully to their residents and getting these kinds of difficult decisions right.

And it shows.

Nine of the ten best councils for recycling household waste in England are led by Liberal Democrats.

Our councils have helped people through the cost of living crisis, with tailored support around food and energy poverty, after school clubs and breakfast clubs, and maximising benefit take-up.

Our councils have put more officers on the street, visibly tackling antisocial behaviour and crime in places where residents want it.

And our councils are delivering record numbers of social rented and affordable homes for those more in need.

Achievements like these are part of why we have built up momentum in local elections, year after year.

Impact on the general election

The most obvious impact local elections have on the next General Election is all the analysis about momentum, testing theoretical opinion polls at ballot boxes all over the country.

But they also matter hugely for building up capacity in local parties.

Here’s just one example: St. Albans in Hertfordshire, a seat we last held in 1904.

The chart below shows the local election results since 2015 (in the full height bars), alongside the Liberal Democrat share of the vote in General Elections (the black bars).

It tells the story of how we achieved a 97% reduction in locally elected Conservative politicians in nine years of brilliant Liberal Democrat campaigning.

Chart showing local election results since 2015 in St Albans City and District Council elections, alongside Lib Dem share of the vote in the General Elections.

We had county council elections in 2017 and won the popular share of the vote across the St Albans Parliamentary constituency. We used that bar chart (clearly and honestly labelled) as the springboard to leapfrog Labour and go from third to second in the 2017 snap General Election. This confirmed us as the clear challengers to the Conservatives and helped us recruit more members and activists.

Over the next two years we focused on winning district council seats, and gained seven in the 2019 local elections. This gave us (minority) control of the district council.

With more councillors, activists, members and a sense of momentum, we ran a brilliant campaign in 2019 and Daisy Cooper MP was elected with 50.1% of all votes cast.

In turn, that helped us build more capacity, recruit more people, achieve more for people locally, and raise more money. And in the next two local elections we went to 30 councillors and then to 50.

Right now, there is just one Conservative councillor left in the St. Albans constituency.

And it means that the team there can do more to help neighbouring local parties build up their capacity too.

This is how Liberal Democrats win: with local election victories and General Election victories reinforcing each other over time, building capacity and momentum.

And it is why these elections are crucial for our target General Election seats in May: if we can gain more councillors, supporters, members and activists over the next few weeks, it makes our prospects of gains in the General Election far more likely.

Our campaign strategy

We know what works. We are on our best winning streak in May local elections since the Iraq war. Week in, week out, we are winning more council byelections than any other party.

And we are confident of making further gains in a few weeks time.

But it is clear that the Conservatives are throwing huge amounts of money at these elections, in a desperate attempt to protect Sunak from his own backbench MPs.

Here is just a fraction of the literature that has been landing recently in some of our key seats. Conservative campaign literature sent out in Lib Dem target seats.

Our response is simple: speak to more people, deliver more engaging literature that speaks to people's concerns, and focus on the issues that matter most to people - with broadcast media coverage that backs this up.

We are doing well.

We have already knocked on more than 1,300,000 doors this year and had more than 400,000 conversations on the doorstep or on the phone with people about what matters to them.

That is nearly double what we did in 2021, last time these seats were up for election. And it is far more than we did last year, when three times as many council seats were up for election.

Bar chart showing voter contact at the start of the year in 2021, 2023 and 2024.

These conversations are helping us understand what really matters to people, seat by seat.

And we are focusing our campaigns on the issues people are talking about.

This is a huge operation. We have delivered well over 11,000,000 pieces of campaign literature to voters across our target seats already this year. By buying in bulk and co-ordinating better than ever before, we are saving local parties hundreds of thousands of pounds.

All this means that people are getting high quality, locally targeted election literature like this.
Liberal Democrat locally targeted literature.

None of this happens by accident.

Nearly 5,000 volunteers have been out canvassing since January, knocking on an average of 280 doors each.

And thirty exceptional campaigners have knocked on more than 1,000 doors each.

Alongside people delivering leaflets, joining phone banking and doing all kinds of other volunteer tasks, this is an extraordinary volunteer effort by people right across the country.

I want to say a heartfelt thank you to each of you, whether you are giving time or money.

You are the reason that we keep winning.

National media coverage

As we head towards polling day, our media focus tightens. We spend every possible moment focused on the issues that matter most to voters.

The single issue that resonates in every single seat is health. Here are a few front page stories our team has researched and landed in the last week. You will notice a theme.

Newspaper front pages.

This kind of relentless focus is what lies behind us consistently winning.

Our national media effort cannot win seats on its own. But it can reinforce the local campaigns we run, and show that Liberal Democrats share people's concerns and are fighting for change.
A fair deal

Our country is struggling right now. People are finding life hard.

But we know as Liberal Democrats that it does not have to be this way.

The elections this May will offer millions more people an opportunity to vote for a fair deal, a change in direction for our country, and a local champion for their area.

We have momentum. We just need to keep going.

If you can help by giving either your time or money then please do.

I hope this has been a useful and interesting overview of our approach. Please do feel free to tell us what you think - I read every response.

Best wishes,
Mike Dixon

Comment:

Blocked and cleared the conversation with Amulya Nayak as a waste of precious attention now who I used and abused to get to where I am today. I am both a member of the Liberal Democrats and pushing my Conservative Libertarianism through it and independently as the least evil of the available evil political masters of the United Kingdom.

I will leave this writing of books alone now, that I am safe and sound given that I have the Bar Standards Board's monitoring of the matter that Forz Khan was dealing with having charged me £3000 as a total waste of client's money because Kent Police will say that they acted proportionately even though I know they terrorised me and avoided the Injunction where this would have been proven in Medway County Court back in 2022. It is now a total waste of my.

time to pursue the private prosecution of Kent Police with its Co-conspirators as a matter that has been resolved by virtue of the email from Mike Dixon of the Liberal Democrats this evening.

I will just idle away and maintain and improve my websites for want of something positive to be doing.

Releasing mental tensions through Réalisation

in Spirituality

<https://www.knowledgeforworldconservation.com/forum/spirituality/releasing-mental-tensions-through-realisation>

At the final state of mind through the Réalisation process one attains spontaneity, nonchalance and unpremeditatedness of actions that are instantaneous to when they are required in the imminent reality until the next reality comes to be and the process begins again.

The effects of one's actions so enacted only begins to dawn and sink in the mind at a later time.

In between actions one is totally still mentally. No thoughts, let alone aims, missions, objectives, plans, wishes, hopes, anticipations, expectations, or desires.

So, what do the actions attain on reflection?

The actions from such a detached frame of mind attain truth.

 Police and Crime Commissioner for Kent

Dear Mr Scott

I know your office said that you will not reply to any further emails for me so I conclude my observations and findings in order that reforms may take place to make the Police more accountable for their actions to the people they purport to serve. It is very disappointing that Professional Standards Department of Kent Police has not produced a Report for me on Complaint CO/999/23.

So at 7.57 pm on 13 April 2024 I texted Mike Dixon of the Liberal Democrats on WhatsApp: 'Hello Mike, both my daughter and I voted for Graham David Colley of Liberal Democrats for Police and Crime Commissioner in our Constituency (Postal Voting). We have no faith/trust in Kent Police and one cannot injunct the Police, litigate or prosecute them when they arrest you under false pretences as I have found to my cost – Kent Police Complaint CO/999/23. Please bring this matter to the attention of Mr Colley. Thanks. Shantanu'

Dear Sirs

Would you be kind enough to confirm that there are no outstanding proceedings in the Case 'Dr Shantanu Panigrahi vs Kent Police' in your Court so that the deduction that I have made namely that one cannot injunct the Police to stop its investigation on a person treated as a suspect on offences, overturn bail conditions at an early date, issue litigation for damages and compensation from the Police, or privately prosecute the Police for police brutality is factual based on the evidence of the proceedings that I have undertaken over the past half a dozen years.

This information is required so that the political process can begin in order for my Party to formulate a new policy in the democratic process that gives legitimate rights to those who have suffered at the hands of their local Police Force.

PLEASE NOTE: WE ARE CURRENTLY EXPERIENCING DELAYS, WHICH ARE AFFECTING THE DELIVERY OF COURT BUSINESS. HMCTS ARE WORKING HARD TO REDUCE THE BACKLOG AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE

If you are sending documents to Medway County and Family Court by post/ a courier service, please ensure that all post is addressed to HMCTS Main Entrance, Gun Wharf, Chatham, Kent, ME4 4AR.

THE FOLLOWING GUIDANCE IS IN PLACE IF YOUR QUERY REFERS TO ANY OF THE MATTERS DETAILED BELOW:

I AM WAITING FOR A COURT ORDER/ APPLICATION/ MY CASE TO BE LISTED

We are unable to respond to email chasing Orders or hearing dates. We are working hard in the court office to deal with relisting hearings and urgent matters. We are achieving this by focusing all of our available resources on these tasks rather than responding to follow up correspondence. We thank you for your patience, at this time. Unless your matter is considered urgent, there may be a delay in dealing with it, however, please be assured that we are dedicated to get everything dealt with as quickly as possible.

HEARING NOTICES

If you are waiting for a hearing notice, it will be sent to you either by post, email or via DX. This will depend on the type of the case as well as the contact information that we hold on the file. Please do not request a duplicate copy if you haven't received a copy of your hearing notice.

MY EMAIL HASN'T BEEN RESPONDED TO

We are dealing with a high volume of emails. To be able to provide as many of our customers with a response as possible, we kindly ask that you please limit your correspondence to urgent matters only or documents for hearings. We cannot at this time deal with general correspondence and would request that you do not copy the court into correspondence between parties. All incoming emailed correspondence will be reviewed; however we are only able to answer the most urgent queries at this time.

Most general queries can be answered by checking the .gov website.

FAMILY NON MOLESTATION APPLICATIONS

Family injunction applications will be actioned as soon as possible. If you have immediate concerns for your safety, then you should phone 999.

DO NOT REPLY

Thank you for your email. This Automated Response confirms that we have received it.

1. If you are getting in touch about an upcoming hearing date or something urgent, we will reply as soon as we can. If you've not done so already, please supply us with your contact details so we can get back to you easily.

If it is about something else, we will try to reply to your email within 10 working days. We may take longer to reply to you.

Please ensure you inform the Court of any changes to your contact details.

Thank you for your email.

Please read the following and any relevant links below, if your email is answered by the information below or one of the relevant links below, you will not receive a further response.

Coronavirus Working Practices

In line with current Government Guidelines, staff are currently working both on site and remotely. Full details of what this means for the individual departments within the Queen's Bench Division are reviewed and updated constantly, they are published at the following link and can be found under the heading Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ). There are no public counters. The Fees Office counter is open by appointment only.

Phones

Telephones will be answered between 10am-4pm. The number to call is 020 3936 8957. If your query is not urgent, please email the office you wish to contact. A list of e-mails are at the bottom of this message. If you are seeking sealed orders, applications or hearing notices, where possible, please check the electronic case file (CE-File).

Filing of Documents/Visiting the Royal Courts of Justice

If you cannot file a document via the preferred methods of CE-File or email, you can post the documents to our department or leave them in a drop box just inside the main entrance. If you do visit the RCJ, you will not be able to speak with any staff other than security.

Hearings

The current directive from the Lord Chief Justice are that hearings will now be listed in court. If a party or parties want to request a remote hearing, either by MS Teams or BT Meet Me. They must contact the Listing Office providing full reasons why a remote hearing is requested. This will be forwarded to the assigned Judge for consideration. The Daily Cause List is published each day between 2-3pm.

Hearings by Cloud Video Platform (CVP) can be arranged if required for hearings in court only (hybrid cases).

Telephone hearings will be undertaken by BT Meet Me conference system, and a court associate will cover and record the hearing.

Legal Representatives Only

Pursuant Practice Direction 51O of the CPR, all documents must be filed via CE-File. Any documents received via post or email will be destroyed via confidential waste, only documents with cheques will be returned to you.

Exceptions to the above apply where the court requests alternative filing, advice by Counsel for an approval hearing or stated in another Practice Direction or Part of the CPR. If an order states filing by email, please attach a copy of the order and state the paragraph with this direction.

Any Party

In accordance with Practice Direction 5B – all emails to the court should include the following, failure to do so will result in the court not actioning or acknowledging your email.

Subject Header – Case number, parties' names and any dates relating to an up-coming hearing

Provide a clear description of the contents in the body of the e-mail message. Please refrain from messages such as "Please see attached".

Please copy your message to the relevant parties where applicable.

Any document that carries a fee and does not state or include proof of payment or fee remission will not be actioned.

If you're unable to comply with these points or any other part of Practice Direction 5B - Electronic communication and filing, your message will not be dealt with.

Comment:

The outcome of the travel is finally fetched the dough. There is no escape from revolutionary reforms to the Law and Order system of the United Kingdom under Conservative Libertarian Society and Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom for no replies have come from the Liberal Democrats to the text and email proving that they had conspired with the State authorities from 2022 affairs and also very recently since I rejoined. The details of how Law and Order needs to change in a culture change for the United Kingdom have been spelt out in the email directly to the Leader of the Liberal Democrats as published and tweeted. No one can reply, not the Courts, not Ed Davey, not Kent Police on the charge that it investigated me as a suspect under false pretences and subjected me to Police brutality over 5+2 arrests and coerced voluntary arrests for no reason whatsoever on stalking and malicious communications that were the work of MI5/MI6 with some emails of around 2022 being part of my defensive communications with the Liberal Democrats so deeply involved in the conspiracy of persecution on me.

Now

I have seen enough, there is no commitment in the Liberal Democrats to accommodate my concerns on various issues including chiefly Law and Order reform of the processes of the United Kingdom. So resignation was the only option:

RESIGNATION FROM THE LIBERAL DEMOCRATS Update in light of recent lack of responses to my concerns Yahoo/Sent Shan

I turned my attention to the legal battle by first posting three emails relating to proceedings in Maidstone Crown Court in Daily Bulletin, tweeting and posting them in Vishista Advaita Sampradaya page of Facebook:

Dear Sir/Madam

It was the abysmal manner in which the Speeding Offence of 5 October 2022 that led to the perverse outcome for me in the conviction and sentencing at the 10 November 2023 Trial of myself, the ignoring of my application to overturn the Bail conditions imposed on me by Kent Police, and the lack of quality assurance checks on E35YM660 proceedings of the Central

London County Court that are the subject of this private prosecution in Maidstone Crown Court currently.

Please identify the individual Magistrates responsible for perpetrating these injustices.

Dear Sir/Madam

1. I have been proceeding steadily through the uncertainties relating to my correspondence with Maidstone Crown Court summarised as linked here for ease of reference in order that the Judge has ready access online to the materials under consideration:

 Dear SirMadam

It was the abysmal manner in which the Speeding Offence of 5 October 2022 that led to the perverse outcome for me in the conviction and sentencing at the 10 November 2023 Trial of myself, the ignoring of my application to overturn the Bail conditions imposed on me by Kent Police, and the lack of quality assurance checks on E35YM660 proceedings of the Central London County Court that are the subject of this private prosecution in Maidstone Crown Court currently.

Please identify the individual Magistrates responsible for perpetrating these injustices.

Dear Sirs

Either Mr Forz Khan was and perhaps still is insincere (for he has not immediately acknowledged my concern), but attempting to extract £3000 as fee for the prosecution of Kent Police remains unjustified.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/forum/diary-of-the-author/13-april-2024-11-02-am-uk-time 13 April 2024, 11.02 am \(UK-Time\) | LibertarianDemocracy-LibertarianDemocracy)

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advise and not anything further, I would be grateful.

Thank you for contacting the Contact and Assessment Team of the BSB.

If you are seeking to make a report

Please use our online reporting form which is available here. This will ensure that your report is properly logged and will help to provide us with the information we need to complete an assessment of your concern.

If you have already made a report

We receive a large number of reports and it is currently taking us at least eight weeks to complete an initial assessment. We will contact you once we have completed our assessment, although we may be in touch with you before then if we need more information about your concern. Please note that we can't give detailed updates on the progress of our assessments.

If you are a barrister making a report about another barrister under rule rC66 of The BSB Handbook, we will only contact you if we need more information. You won't be informed of the outcome of our assessment.

You can read about our process for assessing information here.

If you are making a general enquiry

Answers to frequently asked questions and a link to our Contact Form can be found here. We try to answer all queries within 5 working days. If we need to pass your enquiry to another team, we will let you know. If that happens, please allow extra time for a response. Please note we won't be able to give advice or answer queries about specific conduct or applications.

Dear Sir/Madam

I am still waiting for my Medication Review appointment with Dr Emmanuel Oranusi 5 weeks since my last request through an e Consult submission through Dr Mwanche at my GP Surgery who asked me to telephone the Community Mental Health Team directly and I did so.

The States-organised conspiracy to victimise me fell on deaf ears when seeking assistance from Jill Jesson a psychotherapist by tag only and went unregulated at the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman.

The terrorism on me has continued as below with a Spam call to my Mobile Phone as I write this email.

Legal Representatives

Please note that from Monday 14th February 2022 it is now mandatory for professional users to submit all documents (e.g. bundles, skeleton arguments, application notices etc.) via E-Filing. General correspondence may be sent by email.

CE-File <https://efile.cefile-app.com/login?referer=%2F>

CE-File Information & Support <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/ce-file-system-information-and-support-advice>

This is pursuant to Practice Direction 51O of the CPR and the Practice Note which supplements it.

For Unrepresented Parties only

URGENT applications should be submitted to the court via email to this address:

civilappeals.urgentwork@justice.gov.uk between 9am and 4.15 pm

What may be deemed as urgent:

Cases where in the interests of justice a substantive decision is required within 7 days. The types of work listed below fall into this category

- Child cases
- Committal appeals
- Applications for stay of removal
- Evictions
- Cases (including ancillary applications) with a hearing listed in the Court of Appeal within the next month
- Applications for an urgent stay of execution
- Covid-19 related cases e.g., medical guidance regarding priority patients

NON-URGENT applications should be emailed to: civilappeals.registry@justice.gov.uk
This auto response is confirmation that your email has been received and you will not receive a separate acknowledgement. Staff will follow the internal processes that have been established to process your application as quickly as possible.

All appellant's notices will be accepted in the first instance on the basis that they may be rejected at a later date for want of jurisdiction.

Fresh applications for permission to appeal must include:

- a completed appellant's notice (form N161)
- grounds of appeal on a separate sheet
- The appropriate court fee via your PBA account, a completed Help with Fees form (EX160) or by contacting the RCJ Fees Office on 0203 936 8957 or by emailing RCJfeespayments@justice.gov.uk between the hours of 10:00am and 16:00pm, Monday to Friday (except bank holidays)
- a copy of the sealed order being appealed.
- A transcript of judgment should also be provided if available (or should be ordered immediately)

The public counter at E307 (Registry) remains closed, however a drop box facility is available at the main entrance into the Royal Courts of Justice.

Once the appellant's notice is issued, all queries should be emailed to the appropriate following addresses:

Civilappeals.cmsa@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmsb@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmse@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.listing@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.associates@justice.gov.uk

The court will issue orders electronically in the first instance.

Dear SirMadam

It was the abysmal manner in which the Speeding Offence of 5 October 2022 that led to the perverse outcome for me in the conviction and sentencing at the 10 November 2023 Trial of myself, the ignoring of my application to overturn the Bail conditions imposed on me by Kent Police, and the lack of quality assurance checks on E35YM660 proceedings of the Central London County Court that are the subject of this private prosecution in Maidstone Crown Court currently.

Please identify the individual Magistrates responsible for perpetrating these injustices.

Either Mr Forz Khan was and perhaps still is insincere (for he has not immediately acknowledged my concern), but attempting to extract £3000 as fee for the prosecution of Kent Police remains unjustified.

Dear Forz

Please refer to our arrangement two years ago on the prosecution of Kent Police in either the Magistrates Court or in the Crown Court, which you finally were not able to pursue for me.

That is just as well as I had to go it alone for the injustices that I have suffered were a wound that has not healed, as linked here:

<https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/forum/diary-of-the-author/13-april-2024-11-02-am-uk-time> 13 April 2024, 11.02 am (UK-Time) | LibertarianDemocracy

The highest Court of the United Kingdom it emerges is the Crown Court which has a Case has to go through towards...

I am not legally trained obviously, perhaps I need to go through North Kent Magistrates Court first because the summons that I required from Maidstone Crown Court has met with a blank wall of silence.

If you can advise me for a small Fee as one-off payment just for legal advise and not anything further, I would be grateful.

Thank you for contacting the Contact and Assessment Team of the BSB.

If you are seeking to make a report

Please use our online reporting form which is available here. This will ensure that your report is properly logged and will help to provide us with the information we need to complete an assessment of your concern.

If you have already made a report

We receive a large number of reports and it is currently taking us at least eight weeks to complete an initial assessment. We will contact you once we have completed our assessment, although we may be in touch with you before then if we need more information about your concern. Please note that we can't give detailed updates on the progress of our assessments.

If you are a barrister making a report about another barrister under rule rC66 of The BSB Handbook, we will only contact you if we need more information. You won't be informed of the outcome of our assessment.

You can read about our process for assessing information here.

If you are making a general enquiry

Answers to frequently asked questions and a link to our Contact Form can be found here.

We try to answer all queries within 5 working days. If we need to pass your enquiry to another team, we will let you know. If that happens, please allow extra time for a response.

Please note we won't be able to give advice or answer queries about specific conduct or applications.

Dear Sir/Madam

I am still waiting for my Medication Review appointment with Dr Emmanuel Oranusi 5 weeks since my last request through an e Consult submission through Dr Mwanche at my GP Surgery who asked me to telephone the Community Mental Health Team directly and I did so.

The States-organised conspiracy to victimise me fell on deaf ears when seeking assistance from Jill Jesson a psychotherapist by tag only and went unregulated at the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman.

The terrorism on me has continued as below with a Spam call to my Mobile Phone as I write this email.

Legal Representatives

Please note that from Monday 14th February 2022 it is now mandatory for professional users to submit all documents (e.g. bundles, skeleton arguments, application notices etc.) via E-Filing. General correspondence may be sent by email.

CE-File <https://efile.cefile-app.com/login?referer=%2F>

CE-File Information & Support <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/ce-file-system-information-and-support-advice>

This is pursuant to Practice Direction 51O of the CPR and the Practice Note which supplements it.

For Unrepresented Parties only

URGENT applications should be submitted to the court via email to this address:

civilappeals.urgentwork@justice.gov.uk between 9am and 4.15 pm

What may be deemed as urgent:

Cases where in the interests of justice a substantive decision is required within 7 days. The types of work listed below fall into this category

- Child cases
- Committal appeals
- Applications for stay of removal

- Evictions
- Cases (including ancillary applications) with a hearing listed in the Court of Appeal within the next month
- Applications for an urgent stay of execution
- Covid-19 related cases e.g., medical guidance regarding priority patients

NON-URGENT applications should be emailed to: civilappeals.registry@justice.gov.uk

This auto response is confirmation that your email has been received and you will not receive a separate acknowledgement. Staff will follow the internal processes that have been established to process your application as quickly as possible.

All appellant's notices will be accepted in the first instance on the basis that they may be rejected at a later date for want of jurisdiction.

Fresh applications for permission to appeal must include:

- a completed appellant's notice (form N161)
- grounds of appeal on a separate sheet
- The appropriate court fee via your PBA account, a completed Help with Fees form (EX160) or by contacting the RCJ Fees Office on 0203 936 8957 or by emailing RCJfeespayments@justice.gov.uk between the hours of 10:00am and 16:00pm, Monday to Friday (except bank holidays)
- a copy of the sealed order being appealed.
- A transcript of judgment should also be provided if available (or should be ordered immediately)

The public counter at E307 (Registry) remains closed, however a drop box facility is available at the main entrance into the Royal Courts of Justice.

Once the appellant's notice is issued, all queries should be emailed to the appropriate following addresses:

Civilappeals.cmsa@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmsb@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.cmsc@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.listing@justice.gov.uk

Civilappeals.associates@justice.gov.uk

The court will issue orders electronically in the first instance.

Dear all

I was testing the Campaigners Hub to see if I still had access to it at <https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1mxKC4eWwXpc4YfOJukLbNqinBmEsafbc> and I did a few minutes ago; which was a relief to me for it seems to be the case that my rejection or resignation from the Liberal Democrats as a paid-up member has not materialised as linked here: <https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/post/resignation-from-the-liberal-democrats> unless I am mistaken in reading between the lines for I have not received anything from Mr Paul Farthing.

If my understanding is correct notwithstanding the closed proceedings linked here: <https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/what-have-you-all-to-say-about-this-story> I would like it if you would arrange my membership dues to be changed to the Direct Debit format for life membership from the Card payment method that I have employed in the past.

Thank you for your attention.

What the hell does Kallis Souroullas want from me: he is only returning the greeting I had sent him because he did not refer to the contents of my Profile. There is therefore no need to have a conversation, as a time-waster. The timing of his 'Hi' indicates that he is terrorising me for some authority.

I had sent this whimpering dog a 'Hello' on 24 March 2024. How could he connect with me then and then go straight on holidays for 21 days when I wished him Hello Luqman. It looks like from the timing of his message he has been dragged out to say Hello back to me today. Too deceitful to continue talking to. I don't believe a word he says.

Ed Davey MP and Lib Dem supporters celebrate the 2023 Local Election results with confetti and a giant clock reading, 'Time's up for Rishi Sunak!'

There are less than 3 weeks to go until the local elections, Shantanu.

On 2nd May, there are elections for councils and mayors in many parts of England, and Police and Crime Commissioners in both England and Wales.

This will be the last major electoral test before the General Election.

It's crucial we elect Lib Dems at all levels so people have the caring and hardworking local representation they deserve. A strong result will also make a huge difference come the General Election - it will show the country that we're winning!

Shantanu, if we're going to do this, we need your help!

A ballot paper being marked with an X.

Are you ready to vote?

Register to vote

The deadline is 11:59 pm on Tuesday 16 April (tomorrow)! Make sure your voice is heard by registering here:

Register to Vote →

Vote by post

We recommend voting by post as it's easy and efficient. The deadline to apply for a postal vote is 5pm on Wednesday 17 April 2024.

Apply for a Postal Vote →

Vote by proxy

You can also appoint someone to cast your vote on your behalf, called a proxy vote - the deadline to apply is 5pm on Wednesday 24 April.

Apply to Vote by Proxy →

Voter ID

If you're voting in person, remember you now need to bring a photographic ID. If you don't have ID, you need to apply for a Voter Authority Certificate by 5pm on 24 April 2024 or you could be turned away at the polling station.

Apply for Voter Authority Certificate →

I've Voted!

Once you've voted, fill out this form - this tells us that you don't need to be reminded by canvassing teams on polling day, saving them time to remind others!

A person walks into a building with a 'Polling Station' sign outside.

Can you help out on polling day?

We need to remind as many people as possible to vote on polling day - either through knocking on doors or making phone calls.

Thank you to everyone who has already signed up to help.

Haven't signed up yet? We'd love it if you could spare any time before and/or on polling day.

Please sign up here:

I Can Help →

First time volunteering?

Here's a checklist of things to do in the run-up to, and on, polling day:

 Book Polling Day off - 2nd May

Can you spare a day or a few hours off work to help us win? Polling day is a huge operation, essential to running a good campaign - and our teams on the ground will need all the help we can get.

 Contact your Local Party

Your local party can let you know how you can help and, if there aren't elections in your area, they may be arranging to visit somewhere that does!

 Make phone calls

If you can't help out on the ground, you can still make a difference by calling our supporters and reminding them to vote. You can find the group on Facebook.

Top tips for polling day:

 Charge your Phone

Bring a power bank if you have one!

 Install MiniVAN

Our canvassing app MiniVAN lets you mark people off when they've voted so we don't bother them again. (iPhone/Android)

 Check the Forecast

Dress appropriately and wear comfortable, practical shoes - you'll likely be doing a lot of walking.

 Bring some Water

Don't forget to pencil in time to eat and drink too!

Thank you for your support, Shantanu. Together, let's achieve some incredible results on 2nd May!

Best wishes,

Comments:

This is clearly a message from the State authorities for me to ring someone, but whom to ring. I cannot ring Maidstone Crown Court, for it has not acknowledged proceedings. And I have to prepare for an appointment with Dr Emmanuell Oranusi on 22 April at 11.30 am. I cannot ring anyone.

The great thing about the British is that they always seem to find a fair and just solution to peaceful protestations:

 Colleagues in Liberal Democrats

Dear all

I was testing the Campaigners Hub to see if I still had access to it at <https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1mxKC4eWwXpc4YfOJukLbNqinBmEsafbc> and I did a few minutes ago; which was a relief to me for it seems to be the case that my rejection or resignation from the Liberal Democrats as a paid-up member has not materialised as linked here: <https://www.thelibertariandemocrats.com/post/resignation-from-the-liberal-democrats> unless I am mistaken in reading between the lines for I have not received anything from Mr Paul Farthing.

If my understanding is correct notwithstanding the closed proceedings linked here:
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/what-have-you-all-to-say-about-this-story> I would like it if you would arrange my membership dues to be changed to the Direct Debit format for life membership from the Card payment method that I have employed in the past.

Thank you for your attention.

Yours sincerely

Comments:

Nothing meaningful has come by email from official sources that was important such as the Courts and Liberal Democrats. So, it is all over as far as legal matters are concerned. All avenues for private prosecution and claiming damages and compensation from Kent Police or the Cabinet Office/Treasury of the United Kingdom have vanished. I am only left with my accomplishments of having highlighted the Constitution of the United Kingdom by first hand experience of it. All my websites are in tact and the books are carefully produced and marketed on a need to know basis for which the Standard Letter is required to be followed by would be individuals or institutions: <https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/post/standard-letter-for-enquiries-on-shantanu-panigrahi-s-online-work>

I have started a new book 'Smashing Display' to reflect the fact that The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (<https://theconservativelibertarianpartyoftheunitedkingdom.com>) remains as a viable entity for anyone interested in the ethos and principles of The Conservative Libertarian Society (<https://theconservativelibertariansociety.com>)
